Chapter 5

CAN I HAVE DOUBTS AND STILL BE A CHRISTIAN?

THE FAITH WORKOUT

People: These are some people I respect who can help me grow in my faith:

Books to feed my brain:

Music to feed my ears:

Websites for faith-types:

Chapter 6

Q AND A

GO AHEAD, STUMP ME!

- Why is it good to ask questions, especially questions about what you believe or what the Bible teaches? (Notice the question is “Why is it GOOD ...?” Not just “Why is it OKAY ...?” There’s a big difference!)
- What do you learn by asking questions, compared to what you learn when you don’t?
- What questions do you have about God, or about knowing God better? Can all of your questions be answered?

Chapter 7

SOCCER MOM

GO AHEAD, STUMP ME!

- Why do you think God doesn't always protect us from danger?
- Does it help to pray when you or other people are in danger? Read 1 Peter 5:7 in your Bible and rethink.
- Do you think God will create something good out of something bad that happened? Does Romans 8:28 apply to this question?
- Is heaven one of those good things God created?

Chapter 8

THE GREAT TICKET SCAM

GO AHEAD, STUMP ME!

- Do you think other religions can get you into heaven? Why or why not? What does Jesus say about this in John 14:6?
- The way B.J. saw it, getting into heaven was sort of like sneaking into a movie. Explain what he believed, and why it didn't work.
- Why didn't Megan say what she believed when she had a chance? Have you ever felt the same way? What could you do about it in the future?

Chapter 9

PFD MEANS "PRETTY FAT DUMMY"

GO AHEAD, STUMP ME!

- What would you say to someone who made fun of you for being a Christian? What would you do, if you had a chance? (And don't say, "I'd put ants in their bed"!)
- Could cruel comments or name-calling make you question your faith, the way it did for Franklin in the story? What if it did?
- Name three steps you can take to keep your faith strong and healthy. (Hint: What did Franklin and Gilbert do that set them apart? How did they react to Chris and Keith, and what did they do for them?)
